

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to "decide what is in the national interest" by forcing affiliates to preempt this program is not just arrogant and illegal, it smacks of fascism in its classic form. If the FCC is unable to prevent this abuse of the airways, then its role is totally irrelevant.